Chancellor's Update

Doctors of the Church Answer

During the twentieth century incursions were being made into the culture of Christian civilization. Slowly liberal changes were introduced into novels, plays, theater, movies and eventually into the everyday lives of the citizens. Concepts of sin and violations of the law were being studied and eventually considered by lawmakers and medical professions as possibly something natural to the human race. The slide into destruction of Christian civilization had begun.

What Is Happening

The concept of Christian civilization was reevaluated by experts in the fields of law, culture, human behavior and medicine and eventually promoted by experts in these fields at universities often with large donations by billionaires. Conclusions reached by these experts were then presented to legislators, law enforcement officers, justices, educators, and medical personnel.

Their studies showed that capitalism and its institutions were racist and caused national oppression and gender oppression. After studying the groups within society, the solution would be to identify racial disparity and eliminate it. Group of citizens caused more crime than another group. So, state district attorneys refused to execute the laws of the land. Then law and order district attorneys were replaced with pro-criminal and anti-police district attorneys. New prosecutors could refuse to prosecute many misdemeanors, such as trespassing, shoplifting, larceny below a certain dollar amount, disturbing the peace and receiving stolen property; allowing for chronic violations of law erodes the foundation of cities and civilization. Respect for the rule of law evaporates.

In the medical profession individuals at birth are identified by their sexual identity. However, sexual identity does not always conform to the identity desired or understood by the individuals. So, medical professionals needed to provide psychological and medical answers to help such individuals achieve their true identity. Some transgender individuals suffer from psychological problems and attempt suicide. When medical professionals failed to solve these problems, they used genital reconstruction, or created artificial sex organs. Mutilation of children is promoted as “gender affirming care.” Local schools are provided with training material and personnel. Some children may be exposed to terms such as bondage, domination, submission and masochism to recognize and offer some protection. Confidentiality policy keeps these activities from parents and family. Trans-ideology, animated by a profound nihilism, denies human nature and enables barbarism in the name of progress.

Why Is It Happening

The entire justice system being systematically racist, along with the corruption of law and order, resulted in high rates of family breakdown, substance abuse, mental illness and self-destructive behavior. All things considered, efforts by earlier Marxist radicals failed to alter or destroy the American way of life, thereby necessitating a different approach.

Substituting a new way of being and relating to one another, people will transition to their new communist selves and advance communism in our time. Perhaps by promoting transgenderism, the natural structure of Creation could be toppled and be a spiritual resource for social and environmental transformation and solve all their problems.

However the newest threat involves the rule of law, which is a political and legal principle supporting the equality of all citizens before the law and prevents the arbitrary use of power. Today there is a blatant disregard for fundamental rights. The Constitution is in trouble and in danger due to serious efforts to destroy our country.

When Will It Stop?

Such efforts to destroy the lives of the faithful cause a look at the spiritual side. Three of the four Evangelists wrote about an event in the life of Jesus. “At that time Jesus was casting out a devil, and the same was dumb: and when he had cast out the devil, the dumb spoke: and the multitudes were in admiration of it. But he seeing their thoughts, said to them: every kingdom divided against itself, shall be brought to desolation, and house upon house shall fall. And if Satan be divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand? When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through places without water, seeking rest; and not finding, he saith: I will return into my house whence I came out. And when he is come, he findeth it swept and garnished. Then he goeth and taketh with him seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and entering in they dwell there. And the last state of that man becomes worse than the first...’

Saint Bruno, Abbot, one of the early Church Fathers, described the return of the evil spirit. In the dry and waterless places, he finds no rest, since he seeks what is corrupt and moist. The devil may tempt the good, but he cannot rest in them. The house from which he came has been swept clean of lust, fornication, pleasure, pride, avarice, discord and all uncleanness. So, he takes seven other spirits. It is not enough to possess the house alone; he seeks companions; the place is spacious: it needs many dwellers there. He opens the door, they, once entered, lay waste and destroy everything within. But who are these seven? Why are they more wicked than himself?

“Because seven are the gifts of the Holy Ghost by which everyone is converted to Christ, and defended against the contrary evils.” “Come, Holy Spirit, Come.”
