Chancellor's Update

Hundred Years

Over the past centuries our Order has been exposing the secret societies that are warring against Christianity and in particular the Catholic Church. But not until recently have our warnings begun to be noticed by common folks. The reason seems to be that people generally learn by life experiences. Unless you have worked in a particular field you probably have no knowledge of the problems and difficulties associated with that field. The same is true with explaining secret societies and their behavior. Since most people have no “Life” experiences with these secret societies trying to destroy our civilizations, they cannot explain what is happening to their Church or society. We ask our readers to reread the August, September, December 2014 Updates published on our website in the footer of this page for the past four years.

The following passages, quoted by Barruel and Robison from The Original Writings of the Illuminati, will convey some idea of the character of the Illuminist sect and of its aims and ideals, all of which Illuminism has impressed upon Freemasonry. In these Updates we have exposed the infiltration of our Church with the homosexual activities in the seminaries and the general corruption of the masses. Today we will again expose the secret societies by printing their programs for our destruction. But this time with “Life” experience, you may believe and understand what is happening in our society and Church.

“To reinstate man in his primitive right of equality and liberty we must begin by destroying all religion and civil society, and finish by the destruction of all property [viz., property rights] A time shall come when man shall acknowledge no other law but the great book of nature. This revolution shall be the work of secret societies.

“It is necessary to establish a universal regime and empire over the whole world.... Under the new empire all other governments must be able to pursue their usual progress, and to exercise every power except that of hindering the (Masonic) Order from attaining its end.

“Despotism has robbed men of their liberty. How can the weak obtain protection?... Nothing can bring this about but hidden societies... Princes and nations shall vanish from the earth editor's note: [Open borders or no borders today]. The human race will then become one family . . . and reason will be the code of law to all mankind.

“Seek out those who are distinguished for their power, riches or learning. Spare no pains, spare nothing in the acquisition of such adepts. If heaven refuses its aid, conjure hell. . . These [viz., men of wealth and rank] are a good type of people. They augment our number and fill our coffers.... Make these gentry swallow the bait; but beware of communicating to them our secrets. For that species of adept must always be persuaded that the degree they are in is the highest.

“We must acquire the direction of education and of Church government, the professorial chairs and the pulpit. ... We must profess the warmest concern for humanity, and make the people indifferent to all other relations [viz., such as those of family and country] We must endeavor by every means to gain over the reviewers and journalists; as well as the booksellers, (editor's note-Google, Facebook, You Tube – today) who in time will see that it is their interest to side with us. . . . If a writer publishes anything that attracts notice, but does not accord with our plans, we must endeavor to win him over or decry him.

“Only those who are certainly proper subjects shall be picked out from among the inferior classes for the higher mysteries. . . . No religionist must on any account be admitted into these. Every person shall be made a spy on another and on all round.

“You can't imagine what respect and curiosity my priest degree has raised. . . . A famous Protestant divine who is now of the (Masonic) Order is persuaded that the religion contained in it is the true sense of Christianity. O Man, Man! To what may'st thou not be persuaded!”

The following extracts are from the Alta Vendita seized by the Pontifical Government in 1846.

“Our ultimate end is that of Voltaire and of the French revolution-the final destruction of Catholicism, and even the Christian idea. The work which we have undertaken is not the work of a day, nor of a month, nor of a year. It may last many years, a century, perhaps; in our ranks the soldier dies; but the fight goes on....

“Crush the enemy whoever he may be; crush the powerful by means of lies and calumny.... if a prelate comes to Rome from the provinces to exercise some public function, learn immediately his character, his antecedents, above all his defects. If he is already a declared enemy, an Albani, a Pallotta, . . . envelop him in all the snares you can lay under his feet; create for him one of those reputations which will frighten little children and old women; . . . paint him cruel and sanguinary; recount regarding him some trait of cruelty which can easily be engraved in the minds of the people.... As France and England, so Italy will never be wanting in facile pens which know how to employ themselves in these lies so useful to the good cause.... Let the clergy march under your banner in the belief always that they are marching under the banner of the Apostolic Keys.... Lay your nets in the depths of the sacristies, seminaries, and convents....

“The dream of the secret societies will be realized for the most simple of reasons because it is based on the passions of man.... Let us prepare our arms in the silence of the lodges, erect our batteries; flatter all passions, the most evil as well as the most generous; and everything leads us to believe that our plans will succeed one day even beyond our best calculations....”

Ever since Pope Leo XIII's vision of a conversation between Satan and God, where Satan requested about a hundred years to destroy the Church, men have wondered when the hundred years began. We have no special information about the timing, but the scandals affecting the Church may indicate that the time is about up. In view of what we have quoted above, the devil has done his worst. God is beginning to drain the Judases from the Mystical Body of Christ. This is what draining the Vatican swamp looks like. Be calm and have Hope; the Holy Spirit will guide the Faithful. These scandals do NOT affect the Faith, Doctrines nor Morals of the Church. Christ will be with us all days even to the consummation of the world.
